

Application Process Checklist

- Complete all required prerequisite courses.
- Earn a cumulative GPA of 2.8 or higher and a grade of “C” or better in each prerequisite class.
- Submit an application & be accepted to the University of Southern Indiana. You may apply online at <http://www.usi.edu/admissn/apply.asp>. Your dental hygiene application will not be considered for admission without applying to USI also.
- Submit an application to the USI Dental Hygiene Program by February 1st of the calendar year you desire admission to the program. Download an application: dentalhygieneapplication.pdf.
- Submit official university transcripts from any university other than USI to the dental hygiene program. (USI transcripts need not be submitted).
- Submit official university transcripts from any university other than USI to the admissions office for evaluation. (USI transcripts need not be submitted).
- For transfer students: As you complete each semester, make sure the dental hygiene program and the University receive updated transcripts.